As a volunteer camp counselor you will...

- Participate in an orientation day and training
- Lead camp activities and/or classes for the duration of the camp (June 11-23)
- Collaborate with local volunteers and Yspaniola local and international staff
- Complete a two-week homestay in Batey Libertad to fully immerse yourself in the dominican culture
- Discover the surroundings during group activities lead by our staff (beach, market, waterfalls and more!)

ABOUT YOU

Your are :

- 18 years or older
- Experienced in teaching or working with children (volunteer experience is applicable)
- Able to have a conversation in Spanish and/or Creole
- Passionate about educational equity
- Comfortable living in new environments and interacting with diverse populations
- Energetic, enthusiastic and have a flexible attitude
- Able to stand, walk and be active for a few hours at a time in the hot and sunny local climate

COST

The participation fee is US$1,595. This includes homestay accommodation with a local family, all meals, transportation to and from the airport, activities in the community and in-country excursions. Volunteers must cover the cost of their own flights and insurance.

Since we are working with vulnerable communities, vaccination proof will be mandatory.
